

Fruberget

Characteristics

At Fruberget you find walls, caves and boulders with a very nice stone quality. The area has some of the longest and steepest problems in Sweden. Its position close to the sea has a refreshing effect in the summer. The environment is unique. Fruberget is divided into four sections: 'Fat Cat', 'Lilla grottan & v-väggen', 'Lätta väggen' och 'Stora grottan'.

Directions

Fruberget is located about 10 km north of Västervik. Drive towards Gamleby on the old road on Norrlandet, the peninsula connecting Gamleby and Västervik. You will find Fruberget on your left, facing the Gamleby Bay, after passing Segersgårde. Follow the orange marked hiking trail to get to the different sections. The 'Lilla grottan'-sector is located on the northern summit of the hill, by the hiking trail. The 'Stora grottan'-sector is located on the southern summit of the hill.
